Important information

What will happen to my future employer contributions?

Using this form to transfer your benefits won't change the fund into which your employer currently pays your contributions and may close the account you are transferring benefits from. Speak to your employer about changing your employer contribution to this fund.

Things to consider when transferring your superannuation

The following may apply when changing funds, so you need to consider all relevant information before you make a decision to transfer your superannuation:

- Entitlements – After you have transferred your superannuation benefits from a fund, entitlements (including any insurance cover) under that fund may cease
- Fees – The fund you are exiting must give you information about administration and exit and/or withdrawal fees. Ask your previous fund for further information about fees before completing this form.

Tax file number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (supervision) Act 1993, you are not obliged to disclose your tax file number but there may be tax consequences. Please see section 2 for more information about what will happen if you do not quote your TFN.

Proof of Identification

You will need to provide documentation with this transfer request to prove you are the person to whom the superannuation entitlements belong. Please see section 3 for more information about the types of identification we will accept.

What happens if I do not quote my tax file number (TFN)?

You are not obligated to provide your TFN to us. However, if you do not provide your TFN, you will be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare levy, compared to the concessional tax rate of 15%. We may deduct this additional tax from your account. If we do not have your TFN, you will not be able to make personal contributions to your superannuation account. Choosing to quote your TFN will also make it easier to keep track of your superannuation in the future.

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, we are authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The TFN may be disclosed to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request in writing that your TFN is not to be disclosed to any other trustee.
